Citizen of the Year 2007

Nonie Carr

Nonie Colleen Carr was born at Glendevie and is one of seven children to Ruby and Owen Paterson. Nonie grew up on the family apple orchard property at Glendevie, and attended school at the Glendevie Primary School. Nonie's contribution to the Franklin community over the last 25-30 years is so widely known and well regarded as to be called 'legendary'.

The following is a list of some of the volunteer activities Nonie has been involved with: Franklin Progress Association (42 years), Franklin Rowing Club (25 years), Franklin Football Club (30 years), Franklin Fire Station, Freemason at Franklin (30 years), Franklin Cricket Club (25 years), Annual Christmas Parade (25 years), Franklin Girl Guides, Franklin Primary School.

Young Citizen of the Year 2007

Nicole Mundy

Nicole Mundy was awarded Young Citizen of the Year. Nichole completed her schooling at Geeveston District High School having finished year ten in 2006. Not only has she been extremely active member of the school community and valued team player, she has maintained a high level of academic achievement.

She has been involved in the following areas: MoHow Youth Leadership Training, School Representative Council, Mountain Festival, School Association Committee, Project Hahn, Hands Across Generations, Geeveston Skate Park Group and the Statewide "Think Tank" program. Nicole has also volunteered her time for the following events: Burtons Reserve Open Day, Heritage Park Open Day, Geeveston Forest Festival, Glen Huon Primary School Garden Fair, Taste of the Huon and the Subaru Car Rally.

Nicole has been involved with Councils Youth Advisory Committee Revolution, the Smart Arts Program and has volunteered on the school holiday program.

Community Event of the Year 2007

Now in its third year the Burtons Reserve Open Day held on Sunday 26th November 2006 attracted a record number of children and adults enjoying the many activities on offer at the Reserve. The Open Day was a joint effort organised by Huon Valley Council, the South East Tasmanian Aboriginal Corporation and Cygnet Scouts. Activities included a flying fox across the inlet, a handmade carousel, an obstacle course, merry-g—round, jumping castle and the list goes on.
