RECHERCHE
WENDY EDWARDS

Recheche explores the community's relationships with the wild spaces remaining in the Huon through small creatures that we barely notice, and can take for granted. These animals are increasingly under threat from climate change, natural disaster and their ever-reducing habitat.

"I've made them the elephant in the room." – Wendy Edwards

10 October – 8 November 2020
25 Main Street, Huonville

Wendy Edwards is an award-winning artist who creates site-specific sculptures incorporating mosaic, found objects and hand-made ceramics for public and a private commissions.
